Hello all! Carly here, back for another installment of sartorial musings and awesome knitwear. I'm currently in Montreal, the city where I first met Kate, and started working with Twist. It's sure nice to be back and see old friends. Relatedly, I think you should probably all knit this sweater, because it will be like an old friend; it will always be there for you, looking wonderful and familiar and comfortable. A sweater like this never goes out of style.

Did you see those stunning cables?? Take a closer look.

I think a zipper and hood leans this towards the casual, but I wanted to play around with casual looks that don't revolve around jeans. Layering is fun.

How would you wear Granville??
