Happy Friday friends.

I hope by now you have all gotten to take a slow, leisurely flip through our newest issue, maybe with a cup of coffee or iced tea by your side, drinking in the gorgeous.

I keep coming back to this sweater.

It's rustic and lush. It's far from plain, but it doesn't seem fussy at all. I can't stop looking at it.

There is kind of an argyle thing going on in the cables, which to me seems like secret nerd-code. Wearing this sweater is probably the closest I would get to feeling like a browncoat.

I think as far as styling goes, you can't really go wrong if you pair it with something simple, great boots, and maybe a rich color? I went with a cranberry hue, but cobalt, or mustard, or plum would all be totally divine. Sigh.

Aside from "everyday" and "forever", how will you wear Foxcroft?
