

Hey everyone! It poured rain all night where I live, and my apartment is downright chilly. I sure would like to be wearing a cozy and gorgeous handknit sweater like this one:

Okay, so you would have to factor in a bit of knitting time. Still, what a score for one lucky winner (in the US or Canada).

All you have to do to enter is tell us where you would like to be while wearing this sweater. Maybe a ski chalet, or a cottage? A treehouse? Paris?

You can enter by commenting on today's Facebook post, tweeting at us (.@twistcollective- the dot is important!), or joining the conversation on the Manos del Uruguay Discussion on our Ravelry group page (or all three)! You have til tomorrow (Tuesday) morning.
