

Sadie Dayton is a Boston-based photographer of extraordinary talent. Sadie updated her on-line portfolio recently, and we are honoured to find she has included in Portfolio #3 some images from her work with us for the winter 2008 issue.

Sadie's website is ethereal and elegant, full of inspiring images from the last few years. Look for awhile, and you may find yourself speaking more softly for the rest of the day so as not to break the spell.
